2. Are you taking any medication which causes drowsiness or which interferes with your ability to concentrate or to pay full attention to what is occurring around you?

3. Is there any reason, physical or otherwise, why you could not sit in the jury box for extended periods of time?

4. How far did you go in school?

5. Did you attend a college, university or any institution of higher learning? If so, please tell us which one, how far you went in that educational program, what if any degree you obtained, and your major field of study.

6. If you are married please tell us your spouse's name, age, date of birth and occupation.

7. Are you in a position of authority in your present job? If so, please describe.

8. If you are retired, please tell us the name of your employer, the nature of your employment and your job title before your retirement.

9. What are your hobbies and leisure time activities?

10. Have you or any close family member ever served in the armed forces? If so, please tell who served and the service branch and dates for each individual.

11. Have you ever before served on a jury in a civil or such membership.

17. Have you or any family member or close friend ever been the victim of a crime involving bodily injury or the threat of bodily injury? If so, who, and what kind of crime.

18. Do you know anything about this case from any source whatsoever? If so, please provide the details of your knowledge.

19. Have you heard anything whatsoever concerning this case in the media -- newspapers, television, radio, etc? If so, what have you heard?

20. Has any one ever talked to you about this case or discussed it in your presence, either before or after you arrived at the courthouse today?

21. There will be testimony in this case from police officers and also testimony from other witnesses. Would you give special credit to the testimony of a police office, or be more likely to believe the testimony of a police officer, simply because he or she is a police officer?

22. Have you ever been a witness in a civil or criminal case? If so please give us the details of your participation.

23. Do you know any of the persons named on the attached list of possible witnesses: (read or provide jurors with witness lists)

24. Do you believe that simply because a person has pleaded guilty to resisting arrest, that person should not be able to sue
